2018 OMVIC Engagement Series Meet the CEO/Registrar

OMVIC CEO and Registrar, John Carmichael, along with OMVIC Communication and Education staff will hit the road in a province-wide Registrant Engagement Series beginning September 17, 2018. With stops in 10 cities the series will allow registrants to meet OMVIC leadership and staff, have questions answered, provide insights and share ideas.

In response to feedback from last year's Information Sessions, this year's newly branded Engagement Series will be more interactive to facilitate even greater discussion.

New locations have been added bringing the number of stops to 10, from 6 last year (schedule below). In conjunction with the sessions scheduled in Sudbury and Ottawa, registrants will have the opportunity to share a coffee and conversation with John Carmichael, OMVIC's CEO and Registrar at those city's respective wholesale auctions.

In each session, John Carmichael will discuss emerging issues and share information and ideas on topics of interest or concern to the industry. OMVIC's Education Team will also be on hand to present an educational component focusing on advertising, disclosure, and best practices to assist with compliance.

Bring your questions, feedback, and insights on issues of importance to you! Also – don't forget to bring your smartphone!

Registrants who attend will be entered into a draw to win a $175 gas card (one winner per session).
