Re: Rescission requested under Section 50, General Regulations, Motor Vehicle Dealers Act (MVDA)

On [insert date], I/we purchased/leased a [insert model year, make and model vehicle & Vehicle Identification Number (VIN) here] from your dealership at a total cost of $[insert total amount paid].

Unfortunately, I/we have recently learned that [insert description of problem].

It is my/our understanding this information should have been disclosed in writing, in a clear, comprehensible and prominent manner, as required by Section 42 of the General Regulations, Motor Vehicle Dealers Act, 2002. Further, the absence of this information entitles me to rescind the purchase/lease agreement within 90 days of taking delivery under Section 50 of the Act's Regulations regardless of whether or not you knowingly failed to disclose this information to me/us.

Based on this information, and in accordance with Section 50, please consider this my/our formal request to return the vehicle for a full refund.

I/we have attached the following documentation regarding this matter for your review:

[include evidence of non-disclosure; list as many as appropriate]

- Vehicle history report (e.g. CarProof, Carfax, etc.)
- Used Vehicle Information Package (UVIP)
- Mechanic's report
- Information from previous owner
- Warranty records
- Vehicle service records
- Ministry of Transportation report

I/we understand you are required to refund all monies paid under the contract, including money paid for extended warranties or service plans. I/we would appreciate your response within five business days.

Yours Truly,
